ABOUT

The Tepa Native American Scholarship Fund is established to build personal and lasting relationships with students who will become future leaders in Native American communities, and possibly, with the Tepa Companies.

The Tepa Companies are wholly owned subsidiaries of the Paskenta Band of Nomlaki Indians of California. They deliver comprehensive and sustainable solutions to federal, state, local and private-sector clients throughout the United States. The tribally owned companies work independently and collaboratively to provide wide-ranging construction, professional and industrial services.

$7,000
